Featuring: Scripture, Reflection, and Painting!

Our pastor Fr. Tim Hurd will lead you on a journey through selected Scripture passages, and invite you to put them in conversation with your own faith and life experience. The adventure will continue as Cathy Cobb leads participants (even those who feel artistically challenged!) through a simple fun painting project to deepen our involvement with the scripture readings.

Preregistration required by Wednesday March 14 so we can have sufficient supplies on hand.

No registration fees but donations will be accepted to cover the cost of supplies. All supplies will be provided.

Wear something appropriate for painting or bring an apron to cover your clothing.

We will have a nursery available and also separate activities for elementary age kids (please reserve your spot for your kids by Wednesday, March 14).

Hosted by St. Anne's (morning ladies circle) and Our Lady's Ladies (evening ladies circle)

For more information contact Cathy Cobb in the parish office
To register: By email: catcobb@bellsouth.net, call the parish at 798-1887, or message St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Shreveport on Facebook. Be sure to include how many will be coming to retreat and names and ages of each child who will be in nursery or elementary age activities.
