Featuring: Scripture, Reflection, Singing, and Painting!

Diocesan Director of Worship Dianne Rachal will lead you on a journey through selected Scripture passages, and invite you to put them in conversation with your own faith and life experience The adventure will continue as Cathy Cobb leads participants (even those who feel artistically challenged!) through a simple fun painting project to deepen our involvement with the scripture readings. We will affix old hymnal pages to canvas and then paint over them. Our example will be an angel choir member.

Preregistration required by Wednesday May 30 so we can have sufficient supplies on hand. No registration fees but donations will be accepted to cover the cost of supplies.

All supplies will be provided. If you are an experienced painter, you may bring your own brushes and or (water soluble) paint. Wear something appropriate for painting or bring an apron to cover your clothing. Invite a friend.

If you are willing to help provide breakfast, let me know.

Pop Up Art show: if you are an artist or artisan and would like to display a sample of your work, we will have tables up for another pop up art show! You may bring business cards or notes naming title and/or artist, but this is a venue to celebrate God's gift of creativity, no selling allowed.
